

THIRTIETH YEAR

LANCASTER, KY., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 27, 1919.

NUMBER 55.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION Issued By Gov. Black.

Designates Thursday, November 27,
Day Mentioned By President
Wilson, As Day of Thanksgiving in State Of Kentucky.

"Thanksgiving day is a day for spiritual and material inventory. A day for prayer and reverent thankfulness and appreciation. One to pause from our varied occupational activities and to make a devotional survey of the blessings which an ever watchful Providence has bestowed upon the people of our nation and State.

"Although there linger with us distresses and unrest touches the world's heart because of the tragedies of the recent war, yet patient men and women have not forgotten that God is the giver of all good and perfect gifts.

"With them, hope sees our country emerging, under the providences of God, from the unequalled troubles of the immediate past to accentuate and emphasize its superior tasks and to make sure its superior achievements. The last twelve months have been replete with evidences of God's watchful care over us. Honest effort finds the earth responding with plentiful harvests, and mine and shop yielding helpful sustenance and prosperity.

"Our patriotism has been exalted by our sacrifices, our charity glorified by unstinted help to the less fortunate. The comforts of the home multiplied. Churches and schools are flourishing. The respect for law and order, an indispensable requisite of the civilized state, has, under very trying circumstances, been strengthened, the love of free institutions broadened, and the moral and educational growth of the national character quickened.

"Of all these benefits Kentucky citizenship has generously shared.

"Therefore I, James D. Black, Governor of Kentucky, hereby, pursuant to a custom hallowed by time and rooted in the traditions of our people, designate Thursday, November 27, 1919, the day mentioned by the President as a day of thanksgiving in this State, and I invite my fellow citizens to its appropriate and prayerful observance in church and school and home throughout the Commonwealth."

A Big Cat Fish.

Lige Hart, of near Pollard, brought to Nicholasville a catfish weighing 60 pounds. The fish was caught on a trot line, and had swallowed a fish on the line that weighed four pounds. The fish was a white bellied, yellow tailed and black headed mud cat. It was sixty five inches long and had a monstrous mouth and big head. This is the prize fish caught in the Kentucky river in Jessamine this year. The fish was on exhibition here for several hours and attracted much attention.

It was sold to a Lexington fish market man at 25 cents per pound.—Wilmore Enterprise.

Smile, Smile, Smile.

Where in the H—I did they come from.

Come, tell me, I'd like to know; They've stripped our Old Bird of his feathers

And choked him out of his crow.

You may sometimes dope out a jury.

And how they will settle a case.

Or guess who a woman will marry.

Or pick the right horse in a race;

But you can't figure out an election.

And these words I'll permit you to quote;

You can never tell by past records

Just how a fellow will vote.

So boys, they've handed it to us

Dished up in the latest style;

But let's take the dose that they give us

And smile, smile, smile.

—Maysville Independent.

Loses Home By Fire.

Fire from an unknown origin destroyed the home and all contents of Mr. Reuben Prather last Monday about noon. No one was at home at the time and none of the contents could be saved. He had no insurance.

Safety first—Gaines the Insurance Man.

More Money.

Kentucky Orphans Home Fund. Baker School, Miss Parrie Mae Clark, teacher, contributed $15.45.

GREAT FAIR

Closes In A Blaze of Glory.

Everybody Pleased and Attendance Good.

When the great Tobacco and Corn show closed its doors last Saturday night, one of the biggest events ever pulled off in Central Kentucky passed into history. The display of exhibits were unusually large and the competition in every line was close and interesting.

The show of tobacco was the finest ever seen in the state and as predicted in these columns several weeks ago, Garrard county carried off most of the honors, both in the corn and tobacco exhibits.

Mr. Joe Reynolds was the winner of cigarette leaf, bright leaf, trash and four best hands from a single crop. This tobacco was raised on the farm of Mr. H. V. Bastin, known as the Pattie Gill place and is said to be the best in the county. It was grown from Kelley seed. Mr. John Darn of Mason county won the prize in the red leaf exhibit. Mr. Reynolds having no entry in this class. Mr. O. T. Layton was a close first in every class, but the best he could do was to win three seconds. He also has some fine tobacco.

The corn exhibit was well filled and the competition keen. Mr. Ben Kelley carrying off the honors by winning first on best ten ears of white corn. Dr. Amon winning on best single ear. A complete list of all winners can be found in this article.

Had we the space we would like to describe in detail the splendid exhibits of the various merchants and business firms who had booths all of whom are loud in their praises of the management of the fair and all expressed a desire to engage booths for another year.

It is almost practically certain that the fair will be made permanent and each year it will grow both in interest and exhibits.

The following well known business firms had attractive booths and all report a splendid business, everyone willing and anxious to engage booths for another year and insist that the fair be made a permanent institution.

The forty-eight booths included the following and their business: Kinnaid Bros. Dodge Brothers cars; Paint Lick Garage, Studebaker Cars; Marion Johnson, Lexington cars; Kelley Springfield Tire Co., Kelley Springfield Tires; P. G. Powell, Comet cars and Trucks; Roger Aldridge, Oakland and Overland Cars; W. C. ### Fair Echoes.

Our hats are off to Messrs Peddicord and Kinnaid.

The Tobacco Warehouse was an "eye opener" to the thousands that saw it last week.

Fifty beautiful booths were on display and all showed individuality and artistic decorations.

The Woman's Club made a nice sum of money on the luncheon served and are grateful to friends for patronage shown.

The hand-made quilt exhibit was larger than at the State Fair.

All entry's in this department, were filled and attracted much attention.

Hudson, Hughes and Farnau are proud of the record made by Obelisk Flour. Read their adv. in this issue.

Everybody wants the fair made permanent and held every year. We are for it.

Smittle's Band gave delightful music and was one of the Chief attractions.

There were over 700 lights used in lighting the Warehouse during the fair.

The Christian Church booth was popular and the chocolate served was delightful.

Let's have another fair.

Mr. Jesse Doty, the 70 year old jig dancer, entertained the large crowd with the agility of a 16 year boy, with his dancing, while the band played "Turkey in the Straw."

Charlie Anderson is some dancer, don't you forget, while "Bud" King is in a class to himself as a "cake walker."

Mrs. R. T. Peddicord, dressed as a Gipsy and thought by many to be one, told fortunes for amusement and edification of her patrons.

1500 school children passed thru the gates Friday.

Many old acquaintances were renewed and the social features were enhanced by the bright colored decorations, the gay music and hot lunches, making it an occasion long to be remembered.

Mr. Ben Kelley was happy over winning the first prize in the corn exhibit and also pleased that the first prize tobacco was grown from Kelley seed.

Joe Reynolds, grower of the prize winning tobacco, was equally as happy for his winnings totaled $125.00.

Not a criticism was heard, on the management of the fair, which speaks well for the popular promoters.

Favorable comments and many compliments were heard from strangers, regarding the Garrard Tobacco Warehouse, all conceding it to be the best one they had ever seen.

The Soft drink man had a "soft snap" and the peanut and pop-corn man did a "land-office business".

Simmons, the Danville photographer, took a number of interior pictures, which we hope to reproduce later in this paper.

Thanksgiving Service.
The Thanksgiving services will be held this year in the Christian church, the services beginning promptly at 10:30 o'clock. The sermon will be preached by Rev. C. D. Strother, of the Baptist Church. Everybody is welcome and should attend this service.

New Delicatessen.
Mr. Tom McMillan is the genial host of the new lunch and "short order" counter, which he has just erected in the pool room of Mr. Gabe Walter. Everything most is served with neatness and dispatch and he will be pleased to see his friends at any time. Give him a trial.

Lost on Friday November 21st,

Obelisk Flour Wins Blue Ribbons at The Fair.
Many beautiful exhibits were shown at the Garrard County Corn and Tobacco Fair and none attracted more attention than the exhibits of Cakes, Cookies, Bread, Biscuit and Pies. The Cakes, Bread and Biscuit when cut proved to be as good as they looked and many were the compliments paid to the exhibitors, who carried off the Blue Ribbons. The flour used in making the prize cakes, cookies, bread, biscuit and pies was OBELISK. This flour has again proved its worth. It is not the cheapest but the best flour on the market today. (Adv.)

Auction Sales.
Mr. O. T. Wallace of Lexington, Ky., has just completed arrangements whereby he will sell at public auction on Thursday, December 4th, at 10 A. M., a number of lots at Hyattsville, and on the same day at 2 P. M. he will sell the Webb Faulkner farm of 94 acres located on the Gooch pike 2 miles from Point Leavell. The Lancaster Band will furnish music at both sales. See the advertisements in this issue of paper.

"Henpecked Henry."
The management of the Lancaster Opera House takes pleasure in announcing the coming of the latest and best musical comedy, which will appear at Romans Opera House on SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29th. "Henpecked Henry" promises to exceed the laughter limit with its clean, bright, wholesome comedy. It has been many years since the theatre going public have had the opportunity of witnessing a musical comedy of this kind. The cast which has been carefully selected, are well known to musical comedy lovers, having appeared in the larger cities with well known productions. The chorus is young, and pretty and can dance gracefully. George Donahue's brand of "girl shows" has never failed to please the most critical audience, because they are quick to anticipate the public wants and never disappoints. "Henpecked Henry" which will appear here, comes well recommended and judging from the newspaper criticisms of larger cities, it will be the best musical comedy that will play here this season. The scenic production is carried complete and the costumes are said to be magnificent. It is safe to say that you will not go wrong when you witness "Henpecked Henry."

TOBACCO

COMING IN.

Market To Open Here December 3rd.

EVERYBODY PLEASSED WITH NEW WAREHOUSE.

Several loads of tobacco have already arrived at the Garrard Tobacco Warehouse, the floors have been cleared of everything used during the fair, several workmen are now putting the finishing touches on, and by Wednesday, December 3rd, all will be in readiness for the first and grand opening of the Lancaster Tobacco market.

Thousands of people looked thru this magnificent building during the fair and all are unanimous in agreeing that it is absolutely the best lighted, best equipped, most conveniently arranged of any they had ever seen.

Mr. Manley, of the firm of Manley and Young, Architects and Engineers, of Knoxville, who drew the plans for the entire building was here during the Tobacco and Corn show and received many congratulations. He seemed as proud of it as if he owned it all and took delight in showing those interested through the building. When approached by a representative of the Record and asked what he thought of the lighting system of the building he said:

"The lighting of the Garrard Tobacco Warehouse is the best in Kentucky, and has been worked out from observation taken in over a hundred warehouses in Kentucky, North Carolina and Tennessee. It has been found that it is possible to get too much light as well as having too little, the ideal condition being to make the tobacco all look uniform all over the entire floor, that every man may get the price for his tobacco he is entitled to. Large skylights will not do this like many small ones symmetrically spaced in lines with the rows on the floor. Then the architects make a study to have the light all come thru the skylights at the same angle, thus making all tobacco look its true worth to the buyer, for after all the best price is going to be obtained where the buyer knows the tobacco is exactly what it looks neither better or poorer in grade."

GREAT FOX HUNT CLOSES.

Robert Walker Wins

"ALL AGE STAKE."

The National Fox Hunters meet which closed last week at Crab Orchard, was decidedly the best in the history of the association.

The best running ever seen at any previous national hunts, were seen at this meet. The meet began on the 10th by running the Derby which ran for three days, with 45 entries, and foxes plentiful.

The derby winner being Mr. Homer Howard of Georgia.

The "All Age Stake" with competition open to the world began on Thursday and closed Saturday at 2:30 o'clock. There was 120 dogs started in this race alone, fifty per cent of the States in the Union being represented. On account of the large number of entries, seven judges were appointed to judge this stake, which was the coveted prize of the whole meet. "Abbie" a Garrard County dog, owned, trained and bred by Mr. Robert Walker. This winning dog is of the purest and best Walker breeding and is only 19 months old. "She was sired by stud dog of the Walker kennels as well as the Derby winner.

Under new rulings, "Abbie" could not be entered in the Derby stake but she easily won the James Trophy cup, for highest general average; the Hunting cup; Trailing Cup; Endurance Cup; and one cup in each class entered, winning more than any dog ever won at any previous National trials.

Taken by mistake from Balls Grocery, Monday afternoon, Nov. 24th, a large sack of groceries, and a package with name (Mrs. Nannie Lawrence) in same sack. Also another package containing merchandise. Return to Mrs. Royston Ray or Balls Grocery. 1t-pd.
